Next week is Science Week. Zoolab will be visiting both sites on...

We will also be awarding Scientist of the Term certificates on Friday.

COMIC RELIEF

Next Friday is Comic Relief day.

We invite children to wear their own clothes, red noses and – if they have any – Comic Relief items. We ask for a voluntary contribution of £1 to support.

ASH GREEN In the News

You may have spotted some of our staff and children on Look North last night. We will also feature on Sunday Politics this weekend.

The pieces centre on the cuts to school funding across the country.

On our website there is a link to a letter explaining more about the funding issues for schools.

Our Talk Topic next week will be 'British Science' as we begin our Science Week celebrations.
