

ASH GREEN WEEKLY NEWS

28 February 2020

Next week, at Ash Green we have our FREE family bookmark making session at the Upper Site on Tuesday (see below). Rev Robb will host an assembly at the Upper Site on Wednesday morning and Year 1 open their doors to parents in the afternoon. Thursday is World Book Day activities (see below) and our Reception children will spend the day in Liverpool. We end the week on Friday when Year 5 present their assemblies and our Celebration Assemblies – KS2 at 9.05am Lower Site and 9.25am Upper Site – Reception and KS1 at 2.50pm – all welcome.

BOOK WEEK

COMMENCING MONDAY 2nd MARCH

	3.30-4.30 - UPPER SITE DINING ROOM. Family Learning MAKE A FANTASTIC BOOK MARK
	WORLD BOOK DAY At the end of assembly teachers will read a variety of stories in each class. From 10-11.00am older children will share books with the younger children. Children can dress up as their favourite book character. We will DROP EVERYTHING AND READ at intervals during the day. There will be a BOOK SWAP in each school hall. Each class will attend the book swap during the day where they will choose a book to take home and leave a book for someone else to read.
	Your child may be chosen to bring home their class book box, which will include a teddy, books, magazines and hot chocolate to enjoy with an adult at home. EARLY YEARS DRESS UP - instead of Thursday - due to the Reception school trip - our EY children can dress up as their favourite character on Friday. There will be PRIZES in KS2 for the children who have read the most words in our Accelerated Readers challenges.
